NOTICE UNDER THE INSURANCE CONTRACTS ACT OF 1984

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which is relevant to the decision of the insurer whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require the disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of their business as an insurer, ought to know; and
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

EFFECT OF NON-DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract of insurance in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of voiding the contract from its beginning.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE AND YOUR CONVEYANCING PRACTITIONER

It is your responsibility, not your Conveyancing Practitioner's responsibility, to comply with your duty of disclosure.

The fact that your Conveyancing Practitioner is aware of a matter does not, of itself, mean that Stewart Title is aware of that matter.

Please note that your Conveyancing Practitioner:

- is not the agent of Stewart Title.
- is not responsible for compliance with your duty of disclosure.
- will not disclose matters to Stewart Title without your specific instructions to do so.
- is under no obligation to Stewart Title to disclose to Stewart Title any information which may be relevant to Stewart Title's decision to provide insurance to you and if so on what terms.
- is under no obligation to Stewart Title to disclose to Stewart Title any matters which you are required to disclose to Stewart Title in accordance with your obligations under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

1.1 Actual Loss

We insure you against Actual Loss sustained or incurred in relation to the Covered Risks up to the Policy Amount. Any assessment of Actual Loss which is required under Section 2.1 of the Policy will be determined as at the Policy Date. Any assessment of Actual Loss which is required under Section 2.2 of the Policy will be determined as at the date you discover the Covered Risk.

1.2 Authorised Expenses

We insure you in respect of Authorised Expenses which are incurred by you or which we agree to pay or are required to pay under the Policy as a result of a Covered Risk up to the Policy Amount.

1.3 Defence of Title

We may defend any challenge to your Title, including that part of any proceedings or court case, which is based on a Covered Risk under this Policy. If we decide to defend a challenge to your Title we will pay necessary costs, legal fees and expenses incurred in that defence. We will not pay such costs, fees and expenses incurred by you unless they are approved in writing by us before they are incurred. We will not pay for any part of costs, fees and expenses in a matter that does not relate to a Covered Risk or that relates to a matter that is excepted or excluded from Cover under this Policy. This added Cover is provided without additional premium.

If you have made improvements which increase the value of the Land above 200% of the Policy Amount and you wish to increase your Policy Amount for the purposes of a claim under Section 2.2, then provided there are no circumstances of which you are aware that could give rise to a claim and you do not have any unresolved claims which you have made under the Policy, you may request to increase the Policy Amount although an additional premium may apply.
